YOUTHS OF THE YEAR

IMPACT REPORT

CREW

The Club has...given me a space to express myself authentically.

My responsibilities to give back are...to be someone people can come to for support, to help others strive for a better situation, and acknowledge them for when they do great in all aspects of life.

~ Krystal, Boys & Girls Clubs of the North Valley Youth of the Year, 17 years old

The Club has...given me support to further my academic success in pursuit of my goal to get a Bachelor's in Psychology.

CREW prepared me for...understanding the job application and interview process while teaching me about work ethic. It also has shown me that with hard work and patience you can end the day successful and satisfied with what you've accomplished.

~ Rosalee, CREW participant, 17 years old

CHICO

The Club has...given me amazing opportunities, unforgettable friendships and a second home.

My responsibilities to give back are...now as a Staff, to give the members the guidance and friendship that I received as a Club kid.

~ Shannon, Oroville Youth of the Year, 18

The Club has...provided a place where I have gotten so many more friendships and fun times.

CREW prepared me for...giving back to the community by providing me a chance to gain job experience and work hard.

~ Adham, CREW participant, 18 years old

OROVILLE

The Club has...given me opportunities that have shaped me into a passionate and driven woman.

My responsibilities to give back are...going to continue long past my teen years and into my adult future because of the inspiration that the Club has given me.

~ Katie, Paradise Youth of the Year, 17 years old

The Club has...been a very motivational place to bring out my leadership skills. I always participate in all the opportunities that they have.

CREW prepared me for...not only taking care of the task needed but having fun along the way.

~ Daniel, CREW participant, 18 years old
